Wm. Ballard and son, Len, came in Tuesday night, the former from Florida and Len from Iowa, where they had spent the past two months. They were met here by Will and a Mr. Young.

David Havelin, father-in-law of Mr. Wilber, living a few miles north of Arabia, started from Wilber's Sunday evening to go to A. W. Peterson's, a few miles northeast. Havelin is about 80 years old and walks very poorly.
The old man missed his way and drifted on with the wind past Peterson's and all night wandered back and forth through the hills.
Monday, about noon, the Irwin boys found him wandering around in the hills, 3 miles east of Fort Niobrara, and about all in. They gave him food and drink and took him home. A big crowd was out hunting for him but had not thought of looking so far north.
A number of Valentine people scoured the sand hills all night and others went out Monday morning.

Ye editor and wife spent last Saturday afternoon and evening with Woodlake friends. Upon our visit Monday previous we forgot to mention playing several games of checkers with our friend Wash Honey and he closed winner of the odd game in five or seven games. He wasn't feeling very well Saturday and we went up to Dave Hanna's where we played several games. Mr. Hanna thinks he plays a better game in the forenoon and allowed us to win, or perhaps because we were visiting.
We went to the wrestling match and it was estimated from the 90 paid admissions and numerous ladies and others present that about 160 to 175 people were there, or possibly more (a number of Valentine people got left while waiting for the freight). Dr. J. M. Tische is to be congratulated for arranging this successful entertainment for Woodlake people. I. M. Rice was called upon to introduce the wrestlers and Wm. Fugate, the referee, who gave the audience a little explanation of the rules of wrestling. Bert Watts won the first fall in 33 1/2 minutes and the second in 17 1/2 minutes. The enthusiasm and interest ran high at times and over half the audience were on their feet and some stood on chairs or benches to see.
Cheering and applauding was vigorous and spontaneous throughout the wrestle, though orderly as a speaking contest. Preceding the contest the House Orchestra of Ainsworth gave several selections and following, the chairs were cleared away and the dance begun in which the large hall was filled with couples and the young folks enjoyed a merry time. Dr. Tische entertained the wrestlers to a lunch at his home after the dance in which Wm. Fugate, Ed Carter and ye editor were invited to participate. Incidentally after the wrestle, Bert Watts learned that Jas. Motsick, a druggist of Ravena, to whom his sister is married, is a cousin of John Macek, though the names were spelled differently. Macek and Watts had not met before Saturday evening.

A Medicine That Does Not Cost Anything Unless
It Cures.

The active medicinal ingredients of Rexall Orderlies, which are odorless, tasteless and colorless, is an entire new discovery. Combined with other extremely valuable ingredients, it forms a perfect bowel regulator, intestinal invigorator and strengtheners. Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy and are notable for their agreeableness to the palate and gentleness of action. They do not cause griping or any disagreeable effect or inconvenience.

Unlike other preparations for a like purpose, they do not create a habit, but instead they overcome the cause of habit acquired through the use of ordinary laxatives, cat-harts and harsh physic, and permanently remove the cause of constipation or irregular bowel action.

We will refund your money without argument if they do not do as we say they will. Two sizes, 25c and 10c. Sold only at our store—
